

Parts of the feet and legs

1. What do you call the hard part of your foot below the calf, in the ankle area?
2. What do you call the part of your leg between your hip and your knee?
3. What do you call the joint in the middle of your leg that bends when you sit or climb stairs?
4. What do you call the rounded part of your foot just behind your toes, often used when walking or running?
5. What do you call the five small parts at the end of each foot?
6. What do you call the part of your leg between the knee and the ankle?
7. What do you call the flat part on the bottom of your foot?
8. What do you call the curved part on the top of your foot, between your toes and your ankle?

Do you like the way your feet look?
Rate your feet's beauty from 0 to 10.

THE SECRET LANGUAGE OF FEET

Look at the statements and decide whether they are True or False, then watch the video and check:

1. Our feet walk about 115,000 miles in an average lifetime.
2. Feet have around 25,000 sweat glands in total.
3. The average British foot has become two sizes smaller since the 1970s.
4. Men tend to move their feet more when they're anxious, but women's feet stay still.
5. In ancient Egypt, only men used red nail polish to show power.
6. People can guess your age, income, and some personality traits just by looking at your shoes.
7. Greek feet are when all toes are the same length.
8. Tickling may have evolved as a way to protect vulnerable parts of the body.

What type of feet do you have? And what about your partner?

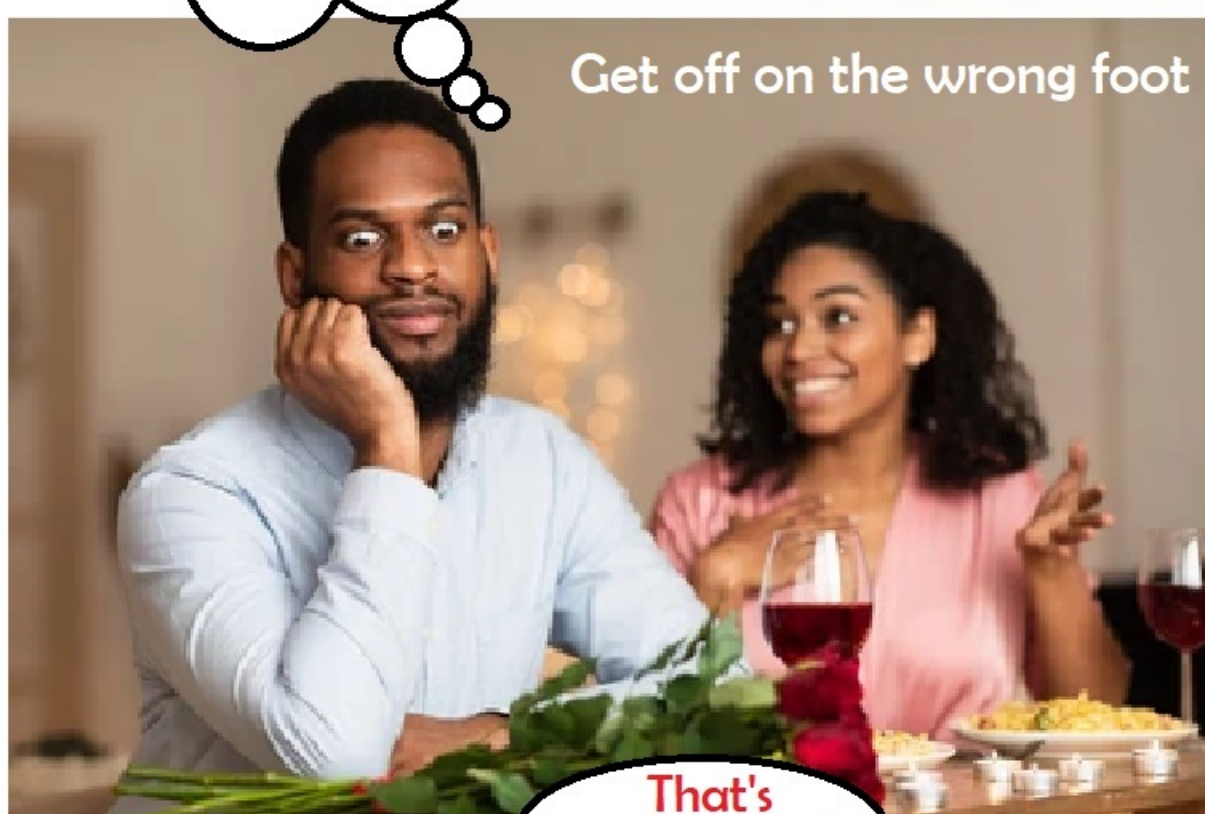

Look at the images and the idioms, match them to the explanations, and then discuss the questions:

- a) to be clumsy, especially when dancing.
- b) to be firm or assertive about something.
- c) to become nervous or afraid to do something.
- d) to pay for something.
- e) to start something badly or with a misunderstanding.

10 minutes into our date, and she's already asking if I want kids...

- 1) Have you ever gotten cold feet right before doing something big? What happened?
- 2) When was the last time you had to put your foot down and stand your ground?
- 3) Have you ever had to foot the bill for a group unexpectedly? Did it annoy you or make you feel generous?
- 4) Do you really have two left feet, or can you secretly dance?
- 5) Have you ever gotten off on the wrong foot with someone but became friends later?

Every Feet Scene in Once Upon a Time ...in Hollywood

LIVE

'BETTER THAN P*SSY'

1. What is a foot fetish?

- a) A strong interest in feet for sexual pleasure
- b) A fear of touching feet
- c) A love of walking barefoot

3. What is retifism?

- a) A fear of toes
- b) A desire to clean feet often
- c) A sexual interest in shoes

2. Who most commonly reports having a foot fetish?

- a) Children and teenagers
- b) Men and LGBTQ+ people
- c) Professional athletes

4. When is the best time to talk to your partner about a fetish?

- a) During sex
- b) After a fight
- c) In a calm, quiet moment

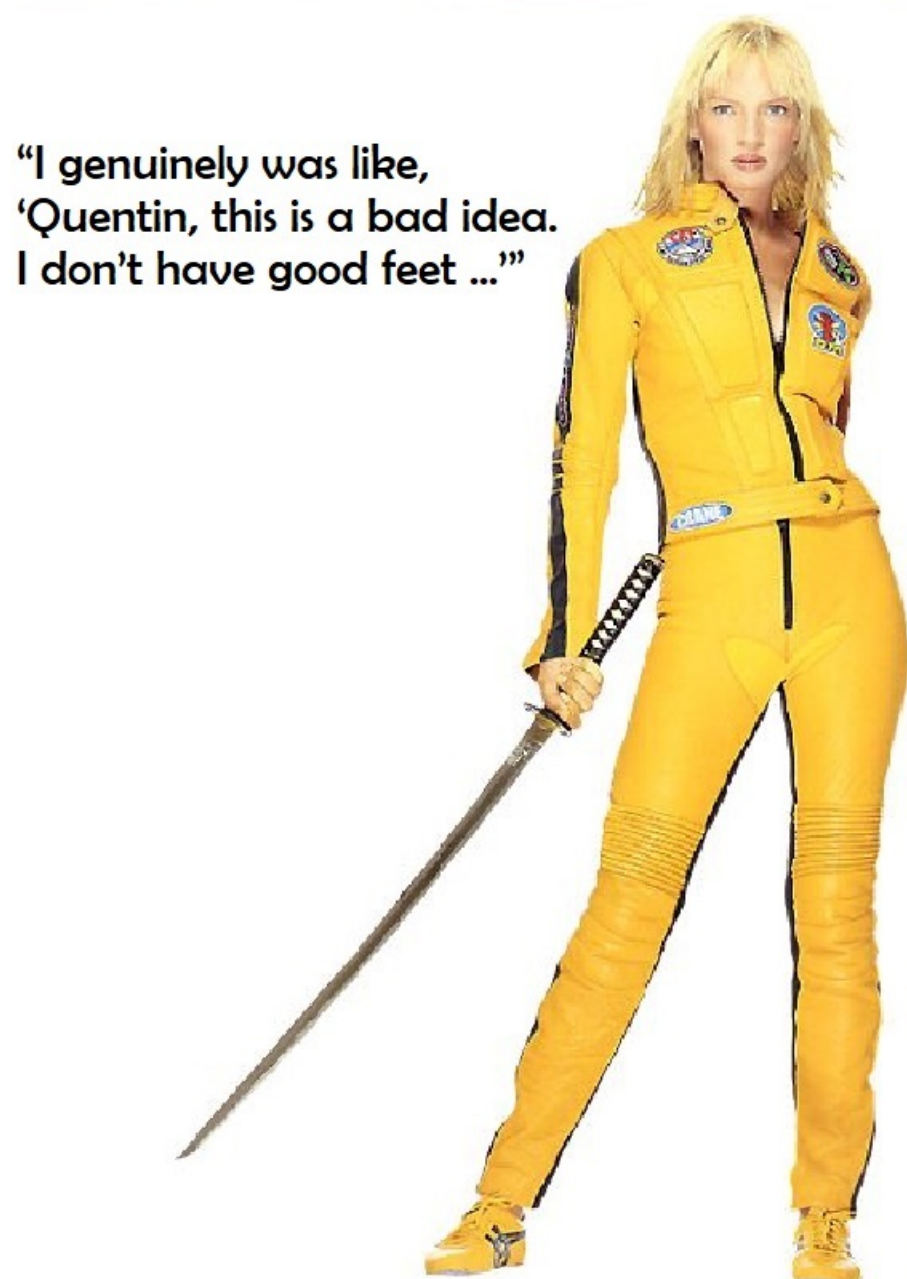

5. What might someone with a foot fetish enjoy doing?

- a) Giving foot massages
- b) Dancing barefoot at parties
- c) Wearing tight shoes

6. When does a fetish become a problem?

- a) When it feels fun and exciting
- b) When it causes shame or problems in life
- c) When someone talks about it openly

Listen to the podcast on foot fetish and answer
the questions.

"I genuinely was like,
'Quentin, this is a bad idea.
I don't have good feet ...'"

"Thank my costars, Leo, Margot
Robbie, Margot Robbie's feet,
Margaret Qualley's feet...
Quentin has separated more women from their shoes than the TSA*."

"They stayed dirty
in the movie because
Quentin said,
'Don't. Don't clean them.'"

TSA - Transportation Security Administration, agency responsible for airport security.
— he's humorously saying that Tarantino's movies have made more women take off their shoes (for foot scenes) than airport security does during shoe-removal at security checkpoints.

Global Search Volume of Most Popular Fetishes

These numbers show the amount of times these fetishes were searched for, across the globe, in a single month

BDSM
1,700,000

Bondage
571,000

Fisting
409,000

Squirting
400,000

