

Quote of the day

Match each quote with the interpretation below, then listen to the podcast to check your answers.

"People think focus means saying yes to the thing you've got to focus on. It means saying no to the hundred other good ideas that there are. You have to pick carefully."

Steve Jobs

"Whatever you want in life, other people are going to want it too. Believe in yourself enough to accept the idea that you have an equal right to it."

Diane Sawyer

"People who get up early in the morning cause war, death and famine."

Banksy

"If you don't have a mountain, build one and then climb it. And after you climb it, build another one; otherwise you start to flatline in your life."

Sylvester Stallone

Albert Einstein

"If you can't explain it to a six year old, you don't understand it yourself."

Roseanne Barr

"The thing women have yet to learn is nobody gives you power. You just take it."

1. Real success comes from choosing one main goal and refusing all other options.
2. People with high authority and strict control often create the worst problems.
3. To win in life, you must believe that you deserve success just like anyone else.
4. True mastery means you can describe a complicated idea in a very basic way.
5. You should never wait for permission to lead; you must step up and do it.
6. To stay happy and active, you need to look for new challenges every day.

She came up with a clever way to fix the broken toy using just a rubber band.

He is a smart student who always gets the highest grades on his math exams.

The intelligent scientist spent many years researching how climates change.

My wise grandfather gave me great advice about how to get the best girl.

Smart vs Clever vs Intelligent vs Wise

- _____ is used for someone who is quick at learning, well-educated, and makes good practical choices.
- _____ is used for someone who has deep understanding and makes good decisions because of life experience.
- _____ is used for someone with high brainpower who can understand deep, complex, or scientific topics.
- _____ is used for someone who finds quick, creative, and unusual ways to solve everyday problems.

- Do you know anyone personally whom you would genuinely classify as a genius?
- Do you agree that a person cannot be wise without being highly intelligent?
- What do you think is the core difference between being clever and sensible?
- If someone is brilliant, does that mean they are always practical and sensible?
- Can a person be smart in daily life without having high formal intelligence?
- If you had to choose just one word to describe yourself, which would it be?

Read the 10 statements and decide whether each one is a truth or a myth, then watch the video to check your answers.

truth
or myth

1. If you are standing tall beside others, you might be smarter.

2. A study found that the first-born child had a higher average IQ score.

3. A study found that intelligent children grew up to consume more alcohol.

4. Smart people seek novel values.

5. Night owls are the more intelligent among us.

6. A new study has found that daydreamers may be more intelligent.

7. A study of individuals found that lefties scored greater in creativity.

8. A study found that IQ scores are lower in male smokers.

9. High schoolers with a higher IQ are more likely to be virgins.

10. A dark sense of humor is positively associated with high intelligence.

Which facts surprised you the most?

- Are you a night owl? Do you get your best ideas late at night?

- Do you have a dark sense of humor?

What is a joke that cracks you up?

- Are you the oldest sibling? Do you think you got the most attention?

- Do you daydream a lot? Where does your mind usually wander off to?

- Are you a lefty? Do you think it makes you more creative?

A smart move is a clever, well-thought-out decision or action that gives a positive result. It refers to a choice that is strategic, beneficial, and demonstrates good judgment - often helping someone avoid trouble or gain an advantage.

Career: "Taking that remote job was a smart move."

Finance: "Paying off high-interest debt early is a smart move."

Everyday life: "Leaving early to avoid traffic is a smart move."

Look at the situations and decide which actions would be a smart move and which would be a bad move Why?

You win $1 million in the lottery.

- ↳ You use the money to do things you've always wanted to do.
- ↳ You pay off all your debts and invest the remaining money to secure your future.

You receive an email saying you won an iPhone from a contest you never entered.

- ↳ You immediately report it as spam and delete it.
- ↳ You click the link and type in your address to claim your prize.

You see a great pair of winter boots on sale, but they are one size too small.

- ↳ You leave them behind and look for a pair that actually fits your feet.
- ↳ You buy them anyway, assuming your feet will adapt or the leather will stretch.

You want to buy a new car but can barely afford the monthly payments.

- ↳ You look for a reliable, secondhand model that easily fits your current budget.
- ↳ You buy the luxury car anyway, hoping you get a promotion sometime next year.

A colleague posts a horrible passive-aggressive comment about you in the team chat.

- ↳ You close the app, take a deep breath, and address it calmly in person later.
- ↳ You instantly reply with a sarcastic comment to show everyone they are wrong.

You plan to ask your manager for a well-deserved raise.

- ↳ You schedule a meeting and bring a written list of your recent achievements.
- ↳ You corner them in the hallway while they are running late for a meeting.

It is early morning, your online English class begins in 30 minutes, and you haven't done the homework.

- ↳ You jump out of bed, grab your notebook, and spend 20 minutes focused on getting the task completed.
- ↳ You decide to spend 20 more minutes in bed, planning to tell the teacher your Wi-Fi isn't working.