

Can you identify the countries in the pictures?

Listen to the American couple, Julian and Vicky, as they kill time on a long flight to Europe and check your answers.

Which facts surprised you the most?

Do you know any other interesting facts about Europe?

IN-FLIGHT ACTIVITIES PERCENTAGE OF PASSENGERS

1	BINGE-WATCH SHOWS/MOVIES	72%
2	SLEEP AND REST	54%
3	EAT AND DRINK	50%
4	READ BOOKS/KINDLES	46%
5	PLAY VIDEO GAMES	35%
6	PEOPLE WATCH	31%
7	SOLVE BRAIN PUZZLES	27%
8	WALK AND STRETCH	20%
9	DIGITALLY CLEANSE (PHOTOS/FILES)	18%
10	JOURNAL OR WRITE	12%

Check out these stats.

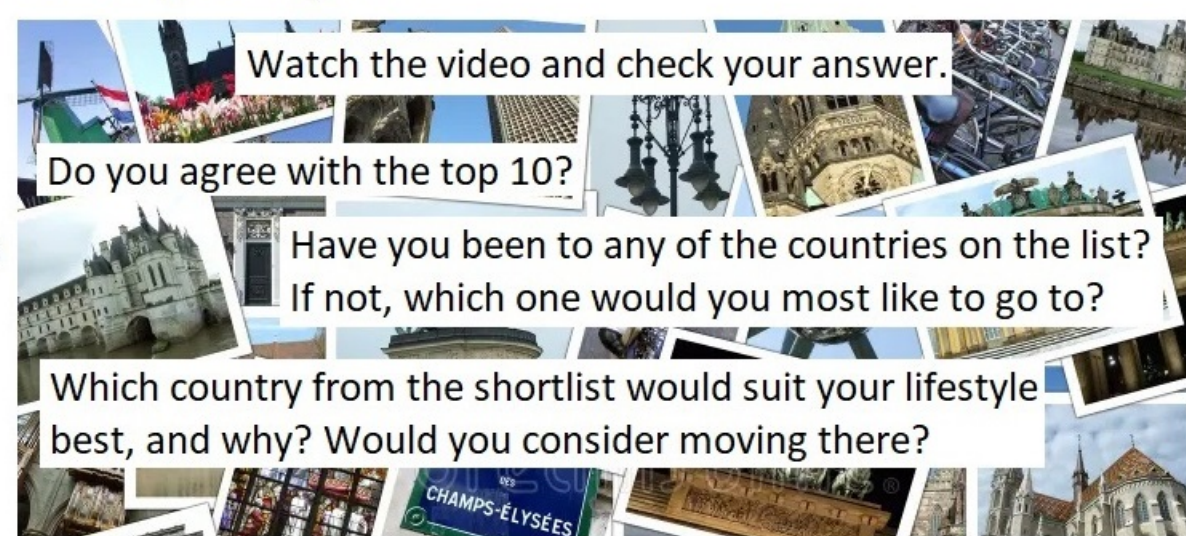

What do you do on a long flight to fight boredom?

Read the facts and match each one with the correct country.

6. It is the world's third-largest economy, yet its citizens work fewer hours than any other productive nation.
7. While lacking dramatic scenery, this country excels in essentials like affordable housing and universal healthcare.
8. A leader in recycling and electric cars, it funds its social programs by being a massive oil exporter.
9. Despite dark winters, this country has been the world's happiest for eight years due to its high quality of life.
10. The government lets citizens take six months off to start a business while legally guaranteeing their old job back.

1. It has Europe's fastest-growing economy and hosts the regional headquarters for most major American tech firms.
2. Though 26% of the land is below sea level, its people enjoy the world's third-highest after-tax income.
3. Famous for elite public transit and high net incomes, it remains the most expensive nation to live in.
4. This nation offers top-tier paid time off, and its capital, Vienna, is frequently ranked as the best city on Earth.
5. Democratically run for a millennium, it is the world's safest nation with the lowest poverty rate.

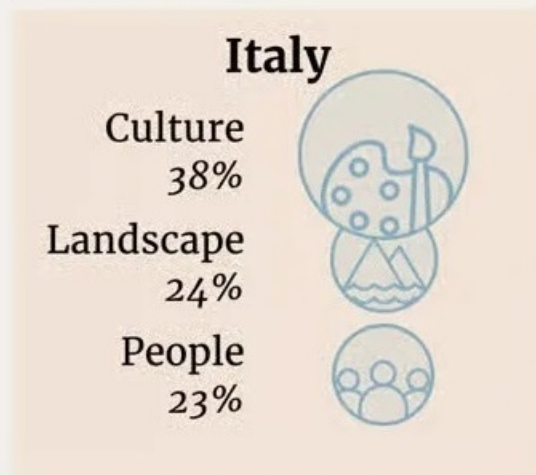

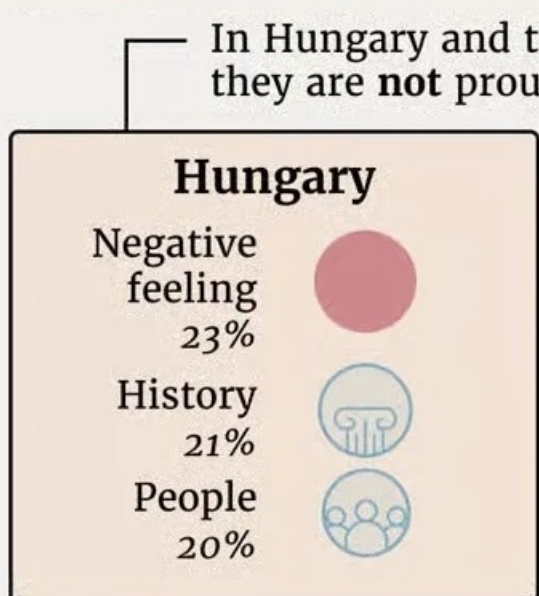

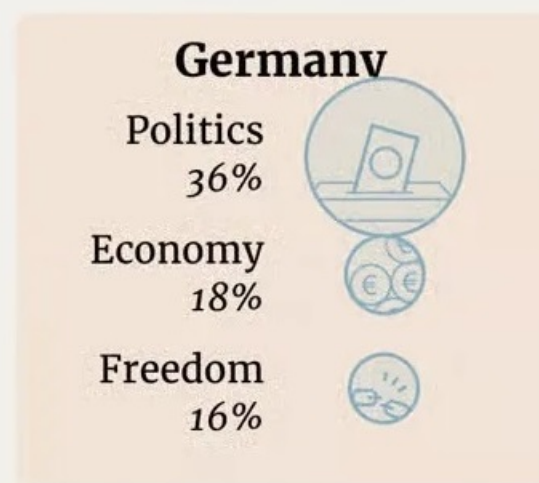

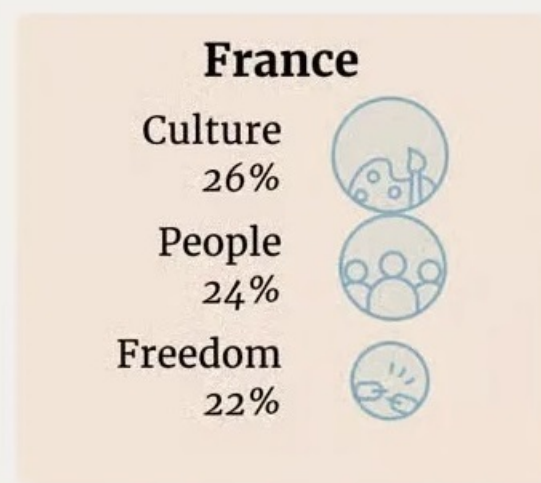

What makes Europeans proud

% of adults from each country who mention ____ when describing source of national pride (top 3 by country)

Look at the survey results and discuss the questions below:

1. Why do you think many Hungarians and British people are not proud of their countries?
2. The French and Italians are proud of their culture. What is your opinion of their culture?
3. People in Mediterranean countries such as Turkey, Spain, and Greece are proud of their people. What makes them so special? Have you spoken with people from any of these countries? What do you think of them?
4. Germans and Swedish people associate their country's pride with politics. Why do you think this is? Do you consider these countries politically strong?
5. Which survey results surprise you?

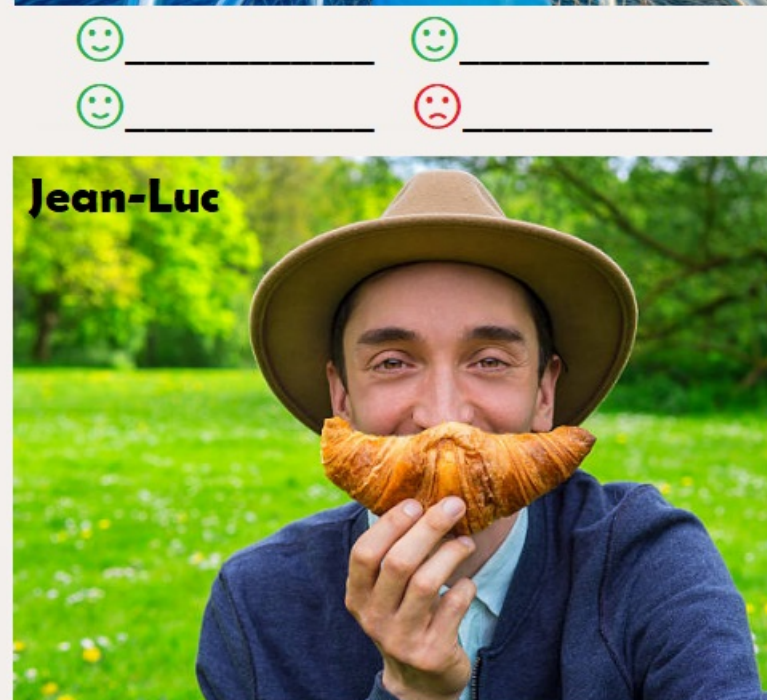

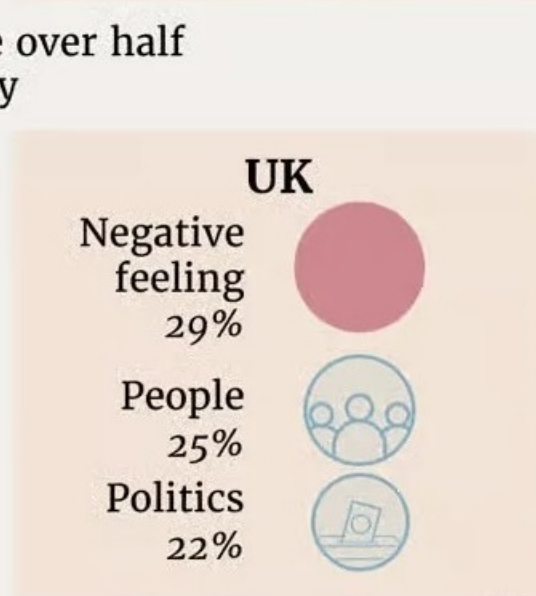

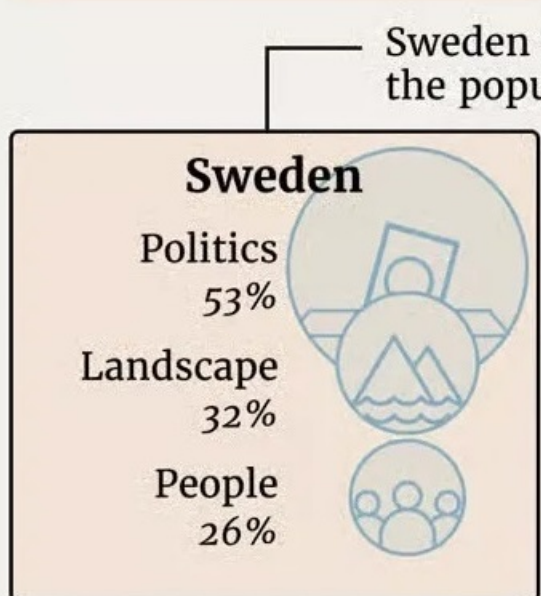

Listen to three speakers from some of these countries and write down what they feel proud of and what they don't.

😊	_____	😊	_____
😊	_____	😞	_____

😊	_____	😊	_____
😊	_____	😞	_____

😊	_____	😊	_____
😊	_____	😞	_____

What are you proud of in your own country?
Is there anything you are not proud of? Why?